GenNext Innovation Hub Invites Applications From Technology Companies

GenNext Innovation Hub (<http://www.gennexthub.com/>) is an initiative by Reliance and Microsoft venture. The Hub has invited online applications from technology companies with

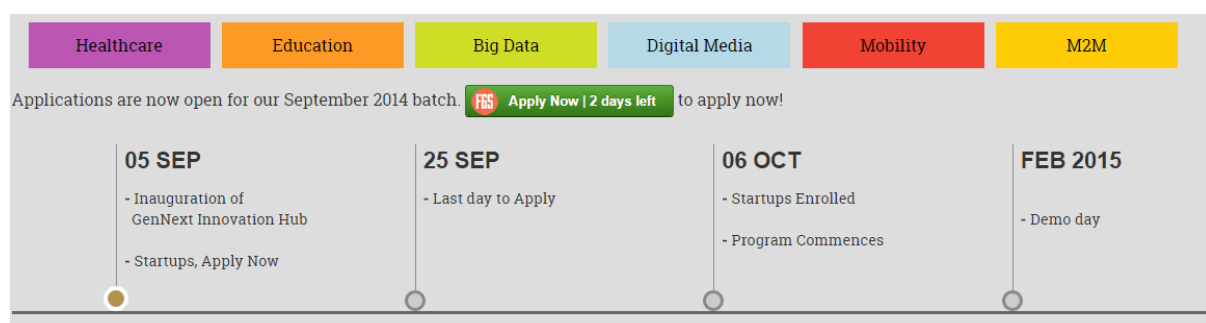

- a full-time founding team,
- a bold vision tackling a real problem,
- a technologically-driven solution and
- ideally a disruptive technology.

GenNext Innovation Hub will provide

- access to business mentors and technical & design experts,
- development tools,
- office space and key resources to help entrepreneurs grow quickly from idea to early business success

To find out more, please contact innovation.hub@gennextventures.com.

Interested participants can apply online, on or before 25th September 2014, at: <https://www.f6s.com/gennextinnovationhubapplication#/apply>
